Biblical Role of Human Government

The role God has ordained for the State is that of restraining unrighteousness by the power of the sword (Genesis 9:5-6; Romans 13:1-5). The role of government is in no way redemptive. Government's obligation relative to so-called "social justice" is the impartial application of (a limited subset of) God's laws to all citizens.

